INTRODUCTION

As so many of the cousins wanted someone to renew the Beachy book, I decided to undertake the task, with Cousin Ida Beachy for my helper.

We hope the kind readers will bear with us and overlook our short comings and mistakes. Some of the family records are incomplete mostly due to the fact that some parties failed to answer the letters of inquiry at all or else answered them only in part.

With the sincere hope that this simple record of the Beachy family may in no way abstract our mind and attention from the Book of all books, we venture to bring it before the public.

We are thanking you one and all for your cooperation in getting this book thus far.

I, Elizabeth, the unworthy of all, wrote this in 1910, so the children and grandchildren can see about their forefathers. I am in my 83rd year. Our folks lived on a wild timber farm in Somerset Co., Pa.

My folks went with the name ground Aacor Christian, or by some people "log Christian" because that was mostly what our farm was - logs and timber. There is where all the family was born and grew up, till the old folks died and were buried on this farm. Then all the family went farther West. Only Dalia once went back to visit and took sick and died. I think Dalia is buried on this old Yoder farm.

Good night folks.

Elizabeth Beachy

I, David S. Beachy, visited the above mentioned Yoder home in Somerset Co., Pa., in May 1932, and I learned that my Grandfather, Christian Yoder, a Bishop, and my great-grandfather also a Bishop, and my great-great-grandfather, a minister, all 3 in the old Amish church, all lived and died on this farm, and all 3 are buried in the same grave yard on the old Yoder home.

David S. Beachy

Following is a clipping from a newspaper printed in Pennsylvania at the time of grandfather, Samuel J. Beachy's death:

Samuel J. Beachy had 453 Descendants at the Time of His Death

News has been received by Pennsylvania relatives of the death at Arthur, Ill., of Samuel J. Beachy at the age of 95 years, 6 months and 6 days.

He was an uncle of Dr. Rufus M. Beachy, the well known veterinarian of Trans-Meyersdale, and was closely related with many other residents of Somerset County, Pa., and Garrett County, Md., and also with many emigrants from these two counties and their descendants living in other states.

Mr. Beachy not only had the distinction of having an unusually long span of life, but also of living until his tribe numbered 456 souls. There may be, or may have been, polygamists who could boast of more descendants than Mr. Beachy before being gathered to their fathers, but it is doubtful whether any monogamist who died in recent years was the progenitor of such a numerous tribe while he was still in the flesh.

This prolific old patriarch had 14 children, 10 of whom are still living; 123 grandchildren of whom 98 survive; 306 great-grandchildren, 269 living and 37 dead; and 13 great-great-grandchildren of whom only one preceded him to the grave. His living descendants numbered 389, and deceased ones 67 at the time of his death.

Samuel J. Beachy was born Nov. 1, 1825, died May 7, 1921. He was the son of Bishop Jonas and Sarah (Gnagy) Beachy, and a grandson of Peter Beachy, who was born in Switzerland in 1767, came to America when a young man and was the founder of the numerous Beachy families of Somerset County, Pa., and Garrett County, Md., and the various states and counties to which branches of this family have emigrated. The pioneer, Peter Beachy, was one of the early settlers of Elk Lick Township, Somerset County, Pa., and is buried on the farm now owned by John D. Yoder near the village of Springs.

Although of Somerset County, Pa., stock, Samuel J. Beachy spent the greater part of his life in what is now Garrett County, Md., (part of Allegany County, Md., during most of the time he lived in Maryland). He lived for many years on Keyser's Ridge on the farm now owned by C. J. Folk and others. About 50 years ago he disposed of his Keyser's Ridge farm and bought the Wesley Blocher farm, now known as the Grassy Cabin Farm and owned by W. C. Loechel, on the east side of the Casselman River, near Grantsville, Md.

As there were several Samuel Beachys in Garrett Co., Md., during the time that the subject of this sketch lived there, he was called by way of distinction "Red Sam," on account of having reddish hair and later known as "River Sam" on account of living on the bank of the Casselman River.

Disposing of the latter farm when he was well advanced in years, he moved with some of his children to Midland, Forquier County, Va., where he resided until the year 1900 when he and his wife went to Arthur, Ill., to live with their son, David S. Beachy, with whom they made their home the remainder of their lives.

Mr. Beachy was married May 14, 1848, to Elizabeth Yoder, who was the mother of his children and his faithful helpmate until March 14, 1919, when she sank to rest at the age of 91 years, 10 months and 27 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Beachy were devout members of the Old Order Amish Mennonite church, ever faithful to its tenets and customs and always living quite simple and useful lives.

Mr. Beachy was of a studious turn of mind, a man who was remarkably well read. He was well posted on the current events of the day, and was a great Bible reader. He was well versed in Bible and Church history, and was a man of no mean literary ability. He loved to discuss matters concerning the Christian religion. He possessed an indelible memory and had the faculty of retaining what he read to a remarkable degree. He was a man of genial and loving disposition which won for him many friends.

He was a brother of the late Bishop Manasses Beachy of Elk Lick Township, father of Bishops Lewis and Moses Beachy and Dr. Rufus Beachy. Both Manasses and Samuel Beachy are remembered by many of the old inhabitants as men of high intelligence, nobility of character and gifted with power of expression far above the average men of their opportunities and education, qualities which have been transmitted to many of their descendants.

(Information received from Jonas S. Beachy)

In 1864 the Grandparents with their family moved to Iowa going by wagon to Uniontown, a distance of 25 or 30 miles, there loading their car and going by train. They did not buy land there as they did not find anything suitable, but moved in a small house close to Fritter Swartzentrubers, she being a sister to Grandmother. The twin boys herded sheep for Swartzentruber during the summer.

They experienced a very dry summer, not having available wells, stocks suffered much for water. Wells were pumped empty several times a day with the cattle crowding up for all they could get. This discouraged the family. It is told how grandfather dreamed of turning his cattle on the mountain pasture and having plenty of water, which influenced him to return to the mountains, where he bought what we know as the Ridge place.

Lydia was born in Iowa August 17, 1864. In the fall they returned to Pa. the same way they had left and lived with Grandfather's parents till April 1865, they with the Great-grandparents moved on the Ridge in two sets of buildings, consisting of about 300 acres, where they pastured their young cattle on what land they could not farm.

Their cattle were usually in two groups, 2 year olds and yearlings, the leader of each wearing a bell. Grandfather would make weekly trips on the mountain with salt, starting before daylight with a lunch, sometimes not returning till late afternoon. Sometimes the young cattle would all be gathered in the cherry-bordered lane back of the buildings for a morning.

Later they purchased the river place where for a number of years some of the older children would keep house and farm. One instance is told when a son and daughter stayed there, how her boy friend came on Sat. eve to take her to a meeting to hear a visiting minister, but it was too far to walk so they got in old Bill and all three rode old Bill to church.

It is also said how this certain friend was directed to find the place where she lived. He was to go up the river to a certain point from where he could hear her sing, then he should follow the sound of her voice, which proved to be that of our esteemed Aunt Kate, she being a great singer. Later they were married and lived close by.

The river place and the Ridge are both owned at the present time by direct family members.

Grandfather's parents are buried on the (Ridge). Both graves are marked with a large slab stone. One slab is unmarked, the other by this inscription, cut out by Grandfather Beachy:

"Jonas Beachy,
Born Nov. 5, 1791;
Died Oct. 27, 1879;
Age 87 yrs., 11 mo., 22 da"

Two evergreens guard these graves, one at the head and one at the foot between the two graves.

In the early (Ridge) days Grandfather would make weekly trips to Grantsville on foot; and later on by horseback. The family would walk or ride on horseback a long distance to church.

SAMUEL J. BEACHY AND ELIZABETH YODER BEACHY AND THEIR DESCENDANTS

1. Samuel J. Beachy, was born in Somerset Co., Pennsylvania, Nov. 1, 1825. On the 14th day of May, 1848, he was married to Elizabeth Yoder. She was born in Somerset Co., Pennsylvania, April 17, 1827.

According to information received by the writers, grandfather Beachy's family first lived on the old home-stead of his father, Jonas Beachy, the farm owned and occupied by Noah Beachy, son of Moses M. Beachy. There are no buildings there where they lived, and possibly after returning from Iowa they lived on Keysers Ridge, west of Grantsville, and later moved on a farm near Grantsville along the Casselman River, and thus became 'Revver Pap", or "River Sam Beachy", as he was known to the outside community in general in distinction from a first cousin of his, also of Grantsville. Some of the old papers had his name as "Samuel Beachy of Jonas."

In his old days, grandfather Beachy told many interesting incidents of his younger days, relating how he in company of some more young folks made a trip from Pa. to Ohio in a wagon, some girls being in the bunch. The boys all walked except the driver. The first morning, after they had camped all night, they were so stiff from walking, they walked 18 miles before breakfast to get limbered up.

The first crop of corn they raised he husked, and stored it in the attic of their log cabin to keep the squirrels away from it, and they ground it into corn meal as they needed it, and it lasted till they had another crop.

One summer after wheat was headed out they had a heavy frost, so taking the rope out of the bed, he took one end and grandmother the other end, and drug the rope through the wheat to knock the frost off before sunrise, thus saving the wheat.

The day before they moved to Keysers Ridge Grandpa walked 18 miles and smeared clay between logs in the cabin and got it all ready, and walked back home again to move the next day. The first night after they moved the clay froze and some crumbled out of the cracks and their oldest son Christian had a little snow mound in his bed next morning, but never even caught a cold from it. While living here they always had far to go to church.

Sometimes they would go down in the settlement on Sat. and return late Sunday evening.

When their twin sons were born he thought the youngest one was dead. He ran to the garden and got a big onion, cut it in the middle and held it over the baby's nose, which brought life to the baby. Later he said, "Little did I think at that time, that would be the son I would live with in my last days."

As remembered by the writers, Grandfather was somewhat under the average in height, not heavy built, and always very erect in walking or sitting, being always of a cheerful and sociable disposition.

Grandmother was a stalwart built woman, being taller than he, and he said he was ashamed of being the smallest and finally the guests wanted to see which was the tallest, and he began to work his feet in his boots till he got standing on his toes before they got him measured. Then he was just as tall as she, which surprised them all. This happened on their wedding day.

In the year of 1895, possibly after disposing of their property at Grantsville, Md., they moved to Faquier Co., Va., with their son, Cornelius, where a grandpa house was built for them, where he spent much of his time in making and repairing shoes. He usually walked a trip or two a day to the postoffice about three-fourth mile distance.

In the fall of the year 1900 they went to Illinois and made their home with their son David until their death, which came first to Grandmother Beachy, on March 14, 1919, at the age of 91 years, 10 months and 28 days.

A few years later, on May 7, 1921, death claimed Grandfather Beachy at the age of 95 years, 6 months and 6 days.

They lived in matrimony for 70 years and 10 months. At the time of grandfather's death, May 7, 1921, there were 9 of their children living and 4 dead; 92 grandchildren living and 22 dead; 231 great grandchildren living and 28 dead; and 9 great-great-grandchildren living and one dead; total number of their descendants at that time was 341 living and 55 dead.

This was written by:
Daniel C. and Menno S. Beachy

At the time of issuing this book in 1946, there are 3 of their children living, and 10 dead; 81 grandchildren living and 33 dead; 507 great-grandchildren living and 86 dead; 570 great-great-grandchildren living and 31 dead; 20 great-great-great-grandchildren living and 3 dead.

the first time in the history of the world, the whole of the human race has been gathered together in one place, and that is the present meeting of the World's Fair.

The object of the Fair is to exhibit the products of all the countries of the world, and to show the progress made in the arts and sciences by each nation.

The Fair is open to all nations, and is a great opportunity for the exchange of knowledge and experience between the different countries.

The Fair is a great success,
and it is a great honor for the United States to have the privilege of hosting it.

The Fair is a great success,
and it is a great honor for the United States to have the privilege of hosting it.
